22nd Annual Stanley Reunion

(under new management - please be patient!)

Hello everyone! Pretend like this is from Joel and Jim...

Bob & MJ didn't get back to Hancock this year until the first week of May! Penny's Friday night bonfire was such a hit that Bob has decided that we'll do it again this year!

We are working on a give-away item - probably a Bill O'Reilly t-shirt 😊 No, it's not quite as good as that but something everyone will be glad to have! The Assignment List has been updated based on the suggestions everyone made or volunteered to do last year. Please let me know if you have an assignment you don't really want or want an assignment you didn't get!

Arts and crafts are back by popular demand - MJ and I apparently volunteered for this. At least that was what Penny wrote down at the meeting where Emmy thinks she was fired.

You'll notice a few changes to the grocery list. MJ and I had a pow-wow and went over the list. We made a few additions (people and grocery items) to the list & a few changes in quantity. We'll tweak the list again after this year's reunion. Some of the additions include a larger assortment of salad dressings, Press-n-Seal wrap (it sticks to paper plates!), half-n-half and flavored coffee creamer. If you have some ideas for next year let us know and we'll add it to the grocery list. A few questions...what is the difference between sweet pickle relish, hotdog relish, and India relish? Also, we added significantly to the tomatoes for Jack's tomato snacks!

There is a "SNACK" category on the grocery list - any ideas? Besides, of course, the peanut butter bars... We thought maybe some of us could bring some cookies, brownies, etc to share or some other snacks - yes, they can be healthy!

Last year, I remember there was some talk about putting together a reunion cookbook—I think I spoke to Jenny & Renee? If so, would you be willing to organize this effort this year? Probably won't be able to have a cookbook together by this reunion but we could all bring our recipes. Jenny and Renee could keep a notebook of food that was served and follow-up during the year to collect the recipes and we could have that for 2007!

Remember to bring warm clothes because it gets cold at nights and remember the rain !!!!
Let's hope we don't need any rain gear!

Don't forget ... the kids don't like junk in the ball and cup game !!! Request is for 'NO big bags of candy, even if the contents are individually wrapped'.. thanks..

Don't forget prizes for the "big kids" too!

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE!! We are going to try something new to get everyone to mix & mingle AND find out some fun facts about each other! Send to me (Mary Catherine) a fun & unusual fact about yourself – keep it clean please and don't tell anyone else. For example, some unusual facts about me is that I made my first quilt this year or I have qualified as expert on an M-16 rifle or my parents house was built during the Revolutionary War. Hopefully this gives you a good idea of what kind of fun facts. The person who mixes & mingles the most will probably get the most right answers and, perhaps, a prize?

And speaking of fireworks...

Don't forget to send your donations to Donny for the fireworks show on Saturday night. You can mail it to him at 292 Jump Road, Oneonta, NY 13820

Jack & Joan are living in Tennessee – at least that was what I was told... Any other news? Can't wait to see these babies this year! Who will be the youngest at the reunion this year?

GOLF OUTING FRIDAY MORNING—ALL INTERESTED PARTIES LET JIM KNOW!

See you all in July!

Joel & Jim
